“Get Up!, I make you witness to the things you’ve seen”

Acts 26:16

CONTEST VIDEO CHALLENGE JMJ 2021

JESÚS ME DIJO: Levanta-te!, ¡Levántate!, Get up

Introduction

During the audience with the participants in the XI International Youth Forum, June 24, 2019, Pope Francis announced the triennial itinerary of the World Youth Days.

As reported by the Dicastery for the Laity, Family and Life, the theme chosen by the Holy Father for the Diocesan World Youth Day WYD 2021 will be: “Get up! I make you a witness to the things you have seen!” (cf. Acts 26:16)

This spiritual path marked by the Pontiff continues in coherence with the reflection begun at the last World Youth Day in Panama in 2019 and with the synodal path, in particular with the Apostolic Exhortation Christus Vivit.

These themes present in common the invitation to young people to “get up”, to hasten to live the Lord's call and spread the good news, as the Virgin Mary did after having pronounced her “Here I am”. The verb “rise up” in the original text of Saint Luke also has the meaning of “resuscitate”, “awaken to life”.

ORGANIZING ENTITY:

The Ramon Pane Foundation: Organizes and calls the WYD 2021 Video Challenge CONTEST.

ENTERING ENTITIES:

The Dicastery for Laity, Family and Life and the Lisbon Local Organizing Committee (WYD Lisbon 2023)

GENERAL OBJECTIVE: Animate the theme of reflection that Pope Francis proposed for Diocesan WYD 2021 through the arts such as music, song, and dance, using the New Evangelization with creativity and innovation with the best of the talents of young people for the Service of the Lord in the Church and thus let this message take action in their lives inside and outside the Church.
